DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-10, 1-21, 49, and 50, drawn to a method of treating cancer. — 86

Group II, claim(s) 22, drawn to a method of treating a skin disease. 86

Group III, claim(s) 23-40, drawn to a method of making a fatty acid.

Group IV, claim(s) 41, 42, 46, and 52, drawn to a fatty acid composition. ^{to correct} 86

Group V, claim(s) 47, drawn to a method of immune boosting. ↓

Group VI, claim(s) 48, drawn to a method of prolonging aging.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: Group I, II, V, and VI are all related to treating a different ailment. Treating different ailments shows that the groups do not have the same general inventive concept. In addition, the unsaturated fatty acid found in group IV can be anticipated by many references that teach unsaturated fatty acids. Therefore, the invention lacks unity and is properly restricted.

Art Unit: 1651

2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

A) bacterial strains selected from those in claims 5-7, 26-28, and 32-34; and

B) cancers from claims 12 and 50

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

A) claims 5-7, 26-28, and 32-34;

B) claims 12 and 50

The following claim(s) are generic: claims 1-5, 8-10, 12-26, 28-32, 35-42, 46-50, and 52.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: A reference anticipating one of the bacterial strains in species

Art Unit: 1651

A would not necessarily anticipate the other bacterial strains; therefore, species A lack unity. In addition, species B does not have the same inventive concept because they are different ailments. Treating different diseases lacks unity.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
